3. The Candidate intending to appear for the preliminary test for Subordinate Accounts Service Examination should submit their applications in the prescribed proforma (available in Admn-II) duly recommended by their Branch Officers so as to reach Admn.II Section on or before 26-06-2020.

4. Full and correct particulars should be given in the relevant columns of the application form. The fact whether they have applied for the Preliminary Test at any time in the past for selection of candidates for SOGE (irrespective of the fact whether they were selected or not) should be stated in the relevant column of the application form. Applications, which do not contain full and correct particulars, will not be considered.

5. The information given in the application is subject to verification, with reference to the official records.

6. Branch Officers may not recommend the candidates appearing for the first time for Subordinate Accounts Service (SAS) Examination if the candidate is not regular in attendance and if they consider that their chances of success are remote.

7. The final selection of the candidates appearing for the first time for Subordinate Accounts Service (SAS) Examination will be on the basis of their performance in the Preliminary Test.

8. The Preliminary Test will be consisting of two omnibus papers each of three hours duration.

Paper – I : General English/Hindi and Constitution of India divided into two sections
Paper – II : Service Regulations and Financial Rules and Principles of Government Accounts.

9. Candidates have an option to answer the papers either in English or in Hindi. Candidates should therefore, specify the option in the application form under the relevant column. Option once exercised is final and cannot be changed later.

10. There have been instances in the past where many candidates absented themselves from Preliminary Test without assigning any reasons. It is therefore, impressed upon the intending applicants that they should apply for Preliminary Test only if they have a genuine interest and that absence from the test without adequate grounds will be viewed seriously.

11. The successful candidates in the Preliminary test for selection of candidates for Subordinate Accounts Service (SAS) Examination 2020 have to register their names on line again for SAS (Main) Examination, 2020.

This issues with the approval of the Accountant General (A&E).
